Maybe you and your gal posse just want to go out for a simple cocktail a la "Holly Go Lightly" style and enjoy people watching. Recommendation: Bellevue Palomino in Lincoln Square. The other night me and my pals did just that. it was the perfect place to catch up and take advantage of their happy hour from 3-6 PM.

Bonding made easy

A hop, skip and jump from Palomino is the new Pearl restaurant and bar in the former locale of Trader Vics. Bellevue's newest independent restaurant and lounge featuring Contemporary Northwest cuisine. Bradley Dickinson and Mikel Rogers, celebrated veterans of the local restaurant scene, bring their native Northwest perspective to Pearl, rich in substance and style.

Pearl offers lunch and dinner, along with handcrafted signature cocktails, a vast selection of premium wine and beer, and gracious service. With daily happy hour, small plates and private dining, Pearl has options to suit every occasion. Pearl is sure to be a new high-water mark for hospitality in Bellevue and beyond.

Opens NOVEMBER 14!

Mel and I attended last night's pre-party and were treated to a very gracious waitstaff, and delectable tastes like mini crab cakes, pulled pork sliders, and scallops with a Grand Marinier reduction. Yum! The foyer and private VIP areas are a strong statement to the exclusive dining experience you can have at Pearl. Take your friends and check out the place November 14th. It's new, now and happening.
