Pearl's Merlot Shortribs

Pearl shines more lustrously than ever during the holidays. The restaurant will serve guests for Thanksgiving, Christmas Eve, New Year's Eve and New Year's Day. For those dining at Pearl on Thanksgiving, guests ordering turkey also enjoy "Leftovers to Go," in which guests receive a box of leftovers to make turkey sandwiches the next day. All the favorites and leftovers without the messy clean-up!

The dinner is $39.95 for adults and $12.95 for children 12 and under. See the full Thanksgiving menu at: <http://pearlbellevue.com/thanksgiving.htm>.

Depending on your need, Pearl offers many dining options. The large semi-private alcove seats up to 30 people and the smaller semi-private alcove seats parties up to 10 for more intimate gatherings. Both offer sheer or heavy velvet draping depending on your privacy requests. For a less formal gathering, three dining areas are available. Choose to sit at a dining table for a small group of up to six, or relax in the lounge with a larger party of up to 12. For a unique dining experience, sit at the exclusive chef's table. It is the ultimate experience for diners who want an up-close and personal dinner with the accompaniment of Executive Chef and Owner Bradley Dickinson (seats up to eight).

The semi-private alcoves seat between 10 and 30 guests

Along with the festive dining comes the Holiday Happy Hour. As always, Pearl will be serving its twice-daily Happy Hour throughout the holiday season. Stop in from 3-6 p.m. and 9 p.m. – close, seven nights a week for half off cocktails and small plates.

Whether you are entertaining out-of-town guests or want to start a new tradition this holiday season, lend your hostess hat to Pearl and sit back, enjoy the savory food, and sip your favorite cocktail.
